South High Now Registering for Summer Sessions

South High School students are presently registering for summer school classes which will be offered in most all subject areas. The summer session will run from June 26, through August 4, with school hours of 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Students may take one or two subjects. The first class is from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and the second class may be taken from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

This is a wonderful opportunity for students to enrich their program by taking electives during the summer which they are unable to take during the regular year due to the particular program they may be taking to meet specific college entrance course requirements. Students may also make up deficiencies or audit any class for self improvement according to Haig Marshlian, summer school principal.

Any high school student living in the Torrance Unified School District may attend summer school by registering in the counseling office. The office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Seven Scheduled For Retirement From District

Five teachers, a school nurse, and the school doctor will retire at the end of the current school year, with resignations accepted by the Torrance Board of Education last week.

Planning to retire from regular classrooms are Mrs. Katherine Grogan, Walteria; Mrs. Pearl Hensley, Parkway; Mrs. Helen Lowry, Madrona; Mrs. Ethel M. Lewis, home teacher; and Mrs. Esther Therriault, Newton.

Also retiring are Dr. H.

PRESS TOUR—According to Susan Membree, fifth grader from room 14 at Caroldale School, who with her classmates and Mrs. Dorothy Stauch, her teacher, toured the PRESS building, "The trip was interesting and informative. We were particularly interested because we print a school paper, 'The Caroldale Press for Children' of which I am editor. Thank you for explaining the process of putting out a paper."

First Year Inclusion as Community Chest Agency

In addition, Mrs. Clutter said, the Torrance YWCA will also cooperate, with other agencies, in the Harbor Area Welfare Planning Council study of youth services.

The Torrance YWCA is now pre-affiliated with the national YWCA and will become an association when it has an executive director and meets program criteria.

Meanwhile, according to Mrs. Clutter, the YWCA-owned building at 2320 W. Carson St., is being used and not left vacant.

With the cooperation of the recreation commission of the city of Torrance, activities have been continuing for Y-Teen and Y-Wives groups that include weekly dances for teenagers, a high school Y-Teen club program, and Y-Wives meetings.

MEMBERSHIP

Torrance YWCA has 413 adult memberships and 321 Y teens. Individual use of the building totalled 3,835 during February, Mrs. Clutter said.

Mrs. Clutter, 812 Acacia Ave., has been an active volunteer with the YWCA for eight years in various capacities, including secretary of the board and membership chairman of the Torrance branch.

She and a board member, Mrs. Victor Benard, will attend the national YWCA convention in Denver, beginning tomorrow, May 8.

Officers of the Torrance YWCA are Mrs. William Anderson, first vice-president; Miss Marilyn Jensen, second vice-president; Mrs. John Gorman, secretary and Mrs. J. A. De Jaifre, treasurer.

Board members are Mrs. Benard, Mrs. R. A. Bingham, Mrs. Miles Booth, Mrs. W. E. Bowen, Mrs. Belva Brase, Mrs. Forest Cato, Mrs. Clara Conner, Mrs. Paul Crossman, Miss Pauline Greer, Mrs. Frank Pagac, Mrs. M. M. Schwab, Miss Edith Simplaar, Mrs. Minnie Solomon and Mrs. Don Wolf.

KEEP WOODWORK CLEAN

To keep woodwork clean, especially around doors where finger prints show up, make a single trip through all rooms once a week, removing smudges.

Don't use an oily dust cloth for this task, though, or you'll just smear the dirt. Sponge off marks with warm, soapy water and polish dry with Kleenex towels, discarding towels for clean ones as they get damp.
